ARMED RESISTANCE

Threatened By Carranza In United States Does Not Withdraw Troops — Ultimatum Is Not Accepted.

Washington, May 31.—General Carranza's latest note, bluntly questioning the good faith of the United States government and with a threat of armed resistance, demanding withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico, was presented at the State Department today by Eliseo Arreaga. Tonight a translation of the voluminous document about 1,200 words long, was laid before President Wilson, who at once began considering how it should be answered.

No one in official circles would attempt to forecast just what course the President might decide. There was complete unanimity in the belief that there would be no immediate withdrawal of the Pershing expedition. High military officials said the defacto government had utterly failed to demonstrate its ability to protect the border against bandits, and expressed the opinion that the troops would stay in Mexico until this was done.

It was suggested that the belligerent and uncompromising tone assumed by Carranza probably was largely for effect upon the Mexican public, and there was little disposition to believe that the defacto government actually contemplated an effort to expel the American army by force.

Mr. Arreaga left the impression that his chief did not expect the defiant words of the note to be taken as the communication to acting Secretary Polk he gave notice that it was not intended as an ultimatum, but as a continuation of the negotiations which have been in progress between the two governments.

The new note, written before the withdrawal of the American troops which entered Mexico after the Huasteca raid, was brought to Washington Monday by Manuel Mendez, an attaché of the Mexican foreign office.

Charleston, W. Va., May 31.—Out-playing Maysville and getting more effective pitching from Carpenter than was essayed by McGraynor, Charleston won from the Cubs this afternoon. The visitors got busy in the ninth and staged a rally which netted them three of the four scores they registered during the performance. The score:

MIDKIFF NEW HUNTINGTON MANAGER

(Huntington Herald-Dispatch)
John H. De Armond, manager of the Huntington Boosters has sold his interests in the club and has resigned his position. Ezra Midkiff, third baseman and the idol of Huntington's fandom has been appointed temporary manager of the team until a meeting of the directors of the club is held Friday or Saturday night when President Joe F. Carr, of the Ohio State League, will attend. This announcement was made at midnight by President Phil C. Jacks, of the local club after an informal meeting of the stockholders was ended. The meeting was held in the offices of Attorney Lawrence McClure.

The fact that De Armond has retired from the baseball field and Old Salt Rock Middlebush will soon be a managerial task surprised those who have been following the career of the team since it started its season.

While it is regretted that De Armond will quit no more popular player could have been selected than Midkiff. His selection will create interest not only in Huntington but throughout the league and Southern West Virginia.

TEST TO JOIN PORTSMOUTH

Not satisfied with having by far the best pitching staff in the league, Manager Spencer of the league-leading Cobblers has another wonder on his string. The new hurler is Herbert Test, star twirler of the West Virginia Wesleyan University; who has been beating Washington and Jefferson and other real college teams. Test will join the Cobs during the latter part of the week.

GAME PLAYED UNDER PROTEST

The base ball game at Charleston on Memorial Day between the Burley Cubs and Senators in which Maysville lost by the score of 16 to 0, was played under protest. The grounds were muddy and in no condition to play on and Manager Jones entered the protest as soon as the game started. Neither Shepherd nor Surrency tried to put anything on the ball. Manager Jones telling them to save their arms.

"DOLLY" GRAY MAY PLAY WITH MAYSVILLE

It is reported that "Dolly" Gray, formerly outer gardener for Charleston, may be in a Maysville uniform soon. Gray has been playing in the South but must leave on account of the ill health of his wife. He would be a valuable addition to local team as he is singer of considerable ability.

ROWDY FIRES PISTOL

Wednesday night just before the revival service closed at the Growers Warehouse a bunch of rowdies from the country congregated near the tabernacle and after acting in a very unbecoming manner one of them fired a pistol. There was no officer near and the fellows were not arrested. Such people as these should be given a stiff dose and a jail sentence.

Mr. Carl Wellman, pitcher for the St. Louis Browns and formerly with the local base ball team, is here called by the serious illness of his wife, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dresel, of East Second street.

Catcher Johnson of last year's Portsmouth team has been secured by the management of the Maysville team to fill the vacancy at first made by Kahler. He has signed a contract to play in a league in the South.

Mr. Gordon Marsh will arrive home today from State University, Lexington, Ky.

HON. STANLEY F. REED FINED

Hon. Stanley F. Reed was tried in Police Court Wednesday afternoon on a charge of driving past a street car while the car was discharging passengers. Mr. Reed was defended by Attorneys M. J. Hennessey, Charles Daly and J. W. Simpson, fellow members at the bar, and although they pled his case well it availed nothing. The case was tried before a jury, which found Mr. Reed guilty and fixed his fine at $10 and costs, which he promptly paid.

ELEVEN CONVERSIONS

Yeuell Gives Lecture on Ben-Hur.

The last preaching service of the Yeuell Meetings in the Growers Warehouse was held last night. A very large attendance was present. There was a deep interest taken up to the last. Friends brought with them their friends who should confess Christ as Saviour or who should consecrate themselves in his service. There were eleven conversions last night. The evangelist was loathe to close this invitation because of the many whom he thought should have responded. There were over eight who have taken an open stand for Christ since the meetings began. Many of these will be baptized during the service in the Christian Church on Friday night. Some will unite with other churches in this city. For every effort has been made by the Christian church and the evangelist to make this meeting in spirit a union meeting. It is to be regretted that the other churches in the city find it impossible to continue the meetings for a few days longer. The lecturer to be given tonight will be of a religious character in the main as the subject "Ben-Hur." The Tale of the best chautauqua lecture. It is well that the patrons of the Yeuell lecture should know that the Mr. Yeuell uses the proceeds of this lecture to educate four boys, who are now in college. One of whom has been offered assistant professorship in Bethany College at the close of the school year. The singing evangelist, Earle Yearstall will sing tonight. This will also be his last appearance before a Maysville audience as both the evangelist and his singer will start a meeting in Winder, Ga. June the 4th. The doors at the Growers will open tonight at 7 o'clock.

A FELLOW AND HIS LODGE

Some people are lodge crazy and join everything in sight. They are called "joiners." Others are pessimistic and can see no good in any lodge.

But there is much good to be derived from membership in any of the legitimate lodges that flourish everywhere, provided the lodge habit is not carried to excess.

It creates a spirit of comradeship among the members that is seldom found elsewhere. If a member is in distress or difficulty, his lodge promptly comes to his relief and tides him over the rough places and into smoother waters. If he is sick, they cheer him with their presence, and watch at his bedside, and see that his family does not suffer during his incapacity. And in many ways they are a distinct benefit one to another.

The lodge is the symbol of the brotherhood of man, and its tenets are founded upon the Bible and advocate the elevation of the human race.

The fellow who identifies himself with some good lodge and lives up to its teachings will be a better man and citizen for the few hours he devotes to its meetings.

When ever you see and admire a beautiful woman, always remember that your own wife is, in your estimation, just a little more beautiful and just a little better than any other woman.

Belle of Maysville

The most wonderful whisky that ever drove the skeleton from a feast or painted landscapes in the brain of man. It is the mingled souls of wheat and corn. In it you will find the sunshine and the shadow that chased each other over the billowy fields; the breath of June; the carol of the lark; the dew of night; the wealth of summer; and Autumn's rich content—all golden with imprisoned light.

Drink it, and you will hear the voices of men and maidens singing the "Harvest Home" mingled with the laughter of children. Drink it, and you will feel within your blood the star-lit dawns, the dreamy, tawny dusks of many perfect days. For many years this liquid joy has been confined within the happy staves of oak, longing to touch the lips of man.

A CITY MAN'S NOVEL SCHEME TO GET BACK TO THE FARM

For men who are disgusted with city life, and who want to get back to the farm, a scheme discussed in an editorial in the Farm and Fireside, should prove of the greatest interest.

A subscriber to Farm and Fireside with a family to support and little chance to save, but who had a nest egg of $2,000 as the result of twelve years economy discussed a co-operative farming scheme with some of his friends who were in a similar position, and most of whom were farmers. They planned to move to some section of the South where land is comparatively cheap and to settle as a community on a tract that would provide a farm of about eighty acres for each family. The plan was to buy the equipment for the farm on some co-operative basis, also improved breeding sires for stock raising, and building, house and farm supplies in the same way. With $2,000 apiece they would have enough and to spare.

"It was agreed that one or two heavy tractors and several light ones would furnish power to operate the machinery on a dozen farms, and by doing one practical successful farmer to manage the entire farming operation. A reasonable degree of success could be counted on from the start. This plan appealed quite strongly to most of the men present who were far-bred, and to the number of about fifteen altogether. What won the favor of a majority of these men was the idea of being able to establish an up-to-date school and provide conveniences such as running water and electric light by co-operative means from the start. This would be brought about by locating the homes in a little settlement in the center of the tract purchased.

"This seems to be an absolutely new angle of the back-to-the-farm movement," says the editor. "Of course there have been real-estate boom schemes floated along somewhat similar lines, but the development of a plan by members of a city church club to carry church and school and social organization and modern city conveniences into farm pioneering puts a new phase on the city-to-country movement."

"ALL WE HAVE EVER KNOWN."
Dr. A. O. Hearn, a Southern Baptist medical missionary in China, while in the home of a well-to-do merchant, saw the merchant and his friends bowing to a paper image of the god of wealth and offering all kinds of food to it.

"Do you think this god, which you bought for five cents, can give you wealth?" asked Dr. Hearn. "No." "Then why do you worship it?" "Because of habit; everybody does this." "Why don't you worship the true God, who gives you all you have? Do you not know it is a great sin to worship images?" "This is all we have ever known," was the reply.

Dr. A. B. Leonard, Corresponding Secretary Emeritus of the Methodist Board of Missions, died at his home in Brooklyn, N. Y., April 21, after an illness of some months.

ENLIST! NO CHANCE TO ESCAPE! PREPAREDNESS COINS WILL GET YOU

Washington, May 30.—Preparedness coins, the first ever struck, will go into circulation in the United States shortly after July 1 next. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo today announced the forthcoming advent of the new coins, stating that they are "intended to typify in a measure the awakening interest of the country in its own protection."

The new preparedness coins will be twenty-five-cent pieces and will appear with newly designed obverse and reverse. These are to be adopted in accordance with a law which permits such alterations every quarter of a century.

The preparedness quarter will show on the obverse side a figure of liberty, stepping forward to the gateway of the country, with left arm upraised in defense and on the arm a shield. The whole attitude is one of defense. In the right hand is an olive branch and the words "Liberty" and "In God We Trust" and the date, "1916." On the reverse side is an American eagle in full flight.

The new half dollar will show a full-length liberty bearing the American flag and carrying laurel and branches on one side and an eagle perched on a crag with spread wings on the other. A mountain pine sapling growing from the rock also is on the reverse side. The inscription "In God We Trust" also appears. The design shows a new profile of liberty on the obverse and on the reverse faces or bundle of rods fastened together, symbolizing the strength that lies in unity. Olive branches surround the faces.

The new half dollar and dime are the creations of Adolph A. Weinman, a pupil of Saint Gaudens and designer of the facade of the municipal building in New York City; the Union Soldiers and Sailors' Monument in Baltimore and other works. The preparedness quarter is the work of Herman A. McNell, the sculptor of the McKinley Memorial at Columbus, O.

The Fine Arts Commission chose these designs from more than fifty models submitted by as many sculptors.

The changing of both sides of the coins is an innovation, it having been the custom heretofore to alter only one side.

HIGH PRAISE FROM CHINESE OFFICIAL

One of China's strong leading men said to a group of missionaries: "You have been preaching in China many years, and, without exception, you exhort men concerning righteousness. In regard to your presence in this province, I willingly testify that it makes for good and that the teaching you impart is calculated to benefit all who may embrace and follow its precepts. Moreover, its effects upon our people are beneficial, and do not in the least interfere with their duties as subjects of the empire and law-abiding citizens."

Such words might be spoken by the leaders of any nation where missionaries have gained a foothold.

HEARD AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

Washington—The Democrats of the Senate spent a rather unpleasant half hour a few days ago when Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, exposed the extravagance of the present administration. Sheppard, of Texas, who has posed as an advocate of economy, came in for more than an average share of attention. Not long ago Sheppard introduced a bill proposing to make a reduction in nearly all governmental salaries until the present lack of revenue had been overcome. Kenyon read the bill to the Senate, whereupon Gallinger, of New Hampshire, recalled the fact that on the day after Sheppard offered that bill he introduced five bills to appropriate sums ranging from $50,000 to $250,000 for public buildings in Texas, one of the $75,000 appropriations being for a town with a population of only 936. Various Democratic Senators tried to come to the aid of Sheppard in the debate but they could not overcome the conclusion that platform pledges of economy were intended merely to catch votes and were not pledges intended to be kept while in office.

It is not all peace and harmony in the ranks of Democracy. There are a number of Democratic members in Congress at both ends of the Capitol, who are chafing under the white House yoke. It is all over the "legislative program" of the President. He wants certain bills and he desires to select the order in which they are to be considered, and this is where he has chafed the political skin of some of his party leaders. Many of the Democrats are expressing their views on presidential interference with the legislative branch of the government, in language more forcible than eloquent, and unless the breach can be healed, President Wilson is likely to find himself without a majority vote behind him on several propositions in which he is vitally interested.

Gossip about the Capitol is to the effect that a most vigorous and active campaign will be conducted by the Republicans in the House, during the coming months. Notwithstanding that every indication points to the Republicans controlling the 65th Congress, yet no stone will be left unturned. It is the intention to call the attention of the country in a nation wide campaign to the errors, short comings and mistakes of Democracy. In thirty-four districts now held by Democrats in the House a change of from 33 to 970 votes would have made the present lower branch of Congress Republican by 28 majority, so that it is any easy matter to figure out how close the Wilson administration squeezed by in the elections of 1914.

For some reason or other Democratic members of the present Congress have not seemed to enthuse over the latest turn in the diplomatic relations with Germany. Both publicly and privately they have been decidedly mum in discussing the situation and while everybody is rejoicing the crisis has apparently passed for the present, yet no one has yet had the temerity to rise up and hail the outcome as a great administration victory.

TAFT ADVOCATES NAVY EQUAL TO THAT OF GERMANY

Washington, Penn., May 30.—Former President William H. Taft, speaking at Washington and Jefferson College here today, criticized the foreign policy of the present Administration toward Mexico and the Philippines, advocated a navy which at least would be equal to that of Germany, and an army reserve that would bring out an effective fighting force up to half a million men. Regarding Mexico he said:

"Mexico has become an international nuisance, but there is no use to cry over that split milk now. We have really intervened two or three times. If we had left the Mexicans to work out their own salvation entirely it could not be a worse job. I do not want to intervene. I know too much of the cost."

He also took issue with the peace advocacy of W. J. Bryan.

"When Bryan says he is in favor of resistance when attack comes, and that a single call for volunteers would raise one million between sunrise and sunset I think he is yielding to the intoxication of the rhetorical moment."

Mexico continues to afford its daily supply of outrages.

RATS' NESTS FOR FUEL

(Douglas, Ariz.) Cor. New York Sun
Many Mexican refugees here are using rat nests for fuel at 25 cents a cord, or $5 a cord.

The idea of marketing these nests originated with employees of the Chiricahua National Forest, near here. The nests are being sold in accordance with the established policy of the forest service to market all valuable products of the national forests.

The nests are built of chips, bark, branches and other wood debris found in abundance on areas cut over by timber contractors. Pack rats are well known for their architecture. They collect this waste in large quantities and utilize it in the construction of their abodes, which frequently rise to a height of three feet.

According to forest officers the removal of inflammable trash improves the appearance of the Chiricahua National Forests, greatly decreases the fire hazard, makes more room for the growth of grass and tree seedlings and tends to reduce the number of pack rats, which are a notorious pest.

KNIFE

Wounded at T. R.—Hand of Teddy Grazed by Ugly Weapon But He Escapes Without Injury.

Kansas City, May 30.—A knife with a six-inch blade was hurled at Colonel Roosevelt as he rode along Grand avenue in an automobile today on his way to Convention Hall, where he spoke at 4 p. m. to a packed audience.

Ernest C. Shell, one of the American Legion guards, who accompanied the Roosevelt car, seized the knife and turned it over to the police.

Chief of Police Hammill has a good description of the man who threw the knife, but who forced his way back through the crowd and escaped before any among the hundreds who saw the act could stop him.

As the Colonel's car approached a tall man with brown clothes and a straw hat forced his way toward it from the sidewalk. When he was within ten feet of Roosevelt he drew a long-bladed knife from an inner pocket.

Leaning over the heads of those before him, he took deliberate aim and threw the weapon at Roosevelt. Had his throw been a few inches higher the knife would have reached its mark. Instead its point struck the door of the car, where it was imbedded for a second. Then it fell on the running board.

Policeman Hides Knife

With a curse the man forced his way backward and the jostling crowd helped to hide his identity.

Fearing a riot might follow the spreading of the news of the attempted assassination, Ernest Shell, one of the American Legion guards, who saw the incident, picked up the long-bladed knife and handed it to the uniformed policeman who was following him.

"Put this in your pocket," Shell told the officer. "Keep it hidden from the crowd."

The policeman obeyed and secreted the knife.

Detectives are endeavoring to locate its owner.

Colonel Roosevelt was bowing and waving his hands to the opposite side of the car and was unaware of the incident.

John McGrath, Roosevelt's private secretary, said the knife grazed the Colonel's hand without inflicting any injury.

A man who gave the name of Edward McDaniel, and said he was from Tulsa, Okla., was arrested late today. According to the police, he tried to force his way into the Roosevelt suite at the Muehlebach Hotel.

"I have business with Roosevelt," "I got business with Roosevelt and I've got to see him," he is quoted as having said.

He was unarmed and is being held for investigation.

MINISTER SAYS IT'S NOT TRUE

Washington, May 30.—Official Washington was puzzled today by a news dispatch from Mexico City, which stated that Foreign Minister Aguilar had announced that no new note had been sent to the United States by General Carranza.

Aguilar intimated that a communication had been under consideration, but offered no explanation as to why it had been withheld.

Manuel Mendez, an attaché of the Mexican Foreign Office, arrived in Washington yesterday. Prior to his arrival State Department officials had been unofficially informed that Mr. Mendez was a special messenger from General Carranza and carried a communication which would probably renew the suggestion that the American troops be withdrawn from Mexico.

Officials of the de facto Government in Washington also had received the same information, but Mr. Mendez, on his arrival said that he carried no note and was simply on a vacation.

For several days there have been rumors that President Wilson has been negotiating with General Carranza in a manner firm but effective. It has been reported that Carranza has acquiesced in the American view regarding the expedition.

Another rumor spread was to the effect that Carranza had agreed to put off further exchange of communications until after the national conventions, at the behest of President Wilson.

PUBLIC URGED TO EXPRESS LOVE OF AMERICA BY OBSERVANCE OF FLAG DAY, JUNE 14.

Washington, May 30.—President Wilson today issued a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to celebrate Flag Day, June 14, with patriotic exercises, giving expression "to our thoughtful love of America." The President declared that the people should rededicate themselves "for an America which no man can corrupt, no influence draw away from his ideals, no force divide against itself."

The proclamation follows:

"My fellow countrymen:

Many circumstances have recently conspired to turn our thoughts to a critical examination of the conditions of our national life, of the influences which have seemed to threaten to divide us in interest and sympathy, of forces within and forces without that seemed likely to draw us away from the happy traditions of united purpose and action of which we have been so proud.

"It has therefore, seemed to me fitting that I should call your attention to the approach of the anniversary of the day upon which the flag of the United States was adopted by the Congress as the emblem of the Union and to suggest to you that it should, this year and in the years to come, be given special significance as a day of renewal and reminder, a day upon which we should direct our minds with a special desire of renewal to thoughts of the ideals and principles of which we have sought to make our great Government the embodiment."

"I, therefore, suggest and request that throughout the nation and, if possible, in every community, the 14th day of June be observed as Flag Day, with special patriotic services, in which means shall be taken to give significant expression to our thoughtful love of America, our comprehension of the great mission of liberty and justice to which we have devoted ourselves as a people, our pride in the history and our enthusiasm for the political program of the nation, our determination to make it greater and purer with each generation and our resolution to demonstrate to all the world its vital union in sentiment and purpose, accepting only those as true compatriots who feel, as we do, the compulsion of this supreme allegiance."

"Let us on that day rededicate ourselves to the nation, 'one and inseparable' from which every thought not worthy of our fathers' first vows of independence, liberty and right shall be excluded, and in which we shall stand with united hearts for an America which no man can corrupt, no influence draw away from its ideals, no force divide against itself, a nation signally distinguished among all the nations of mankind for its clear, individual conception of its duties and its privileges, its obligations and its rights."

SIMPLICITY IS TO MARK HILL FUNERAL

St. Paul, Minn., May 30.—Simplicity will mark the funeral of James J. Hill, pioneer railroad builder, who died at his home here yesterday.

The democratic spirit of the "Empire Builder" will follow him to his last resting place. His great home was opened to the employees of the Great Northern Railroad this afternoon, and the fact that today was a holiday made it possible for most of the several thousand employees of the company here in Minneapolis to view the body of their employer.

Funeral services will be held from the home Wednesday at 2 p. m. Right Rev. James J. Gibson, Vice-General, will have charge of the services. The funeral will be public, but only relatives, close friends and persons employed by the Hill interests are expected to attend.

All day and through the night messages from all sections of the country were received by members of the family. They came from railroad Presidents, financiers, civic and state organizations and political leaders. All expressed grief at the loss of one of the nation's most widely known men and offered condolence.

All day throngs of persons passed the big brown mansion on Summit avenue. Every flag in the city was at half-mast. Wednesday all the banking institutions in the city will be closed at 1:30 p. m. The First National Bank and the Northwestern Trust Company, Hill institutions, will be closed at noon.

The Nile Mission Press, which prints literature for the whole Mohammedan world, has recently published its tenth year of active service. In this time it has put out eighty-three million pages of religious literature. About thirteen million of this has gone forth in the last months since the Press moved into its new quarters—the gift largely of American contributors.

SOME USEFUL DREAMS

Many Famous Inventions and Writings
Are Result of Visions While Sleeping.

(Answers)

We are apt to regard a dream as a waste material, which has no real reference or touch with life. But it is not always so, and the questions might be asked whether we make as much use of dreams as our ancestors in the earlier stages of the world.

There have been several cases of very abstruse mathematical problems, which have baffled the mathematician while awake, solving themselves in sleep. But it is probable that no modern man reduced dreaming to so scientific and useful a point as Robert Louis Stevenson.

He was a wonderful dreamer, and could dream in sequence, continuing a dream from the point where he had broken off, like a serial story. It was in this way that the greater part of "Jekyll and Hyde" was put together.

Well, if a man can dream a masterpiece of fiction, it is worth something. Ask any American what the most unusual hymn in the world is and he will say, with Colonel Roosevelt, that the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" is the best and shoulders better than the head—that it "beats to a frazzle all the others."

Soon after the outbreak of the Civil War Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, who wrote the hymn, heard the soldiers singing "John Brown's Body." The tune sang in her mind, and she thought she would like to write new words to fit it, but they wouldn't come. She retired for the night, and dreamed the whole poem as it stands. Getting out of bed, and scarcely conscious of what she did she wrote the verses, then got back into bed and slept till morning.

But perhaps the cake is taken in this sort of thing by the inventor of the sewing machine. Elias Howe was the machine, and his difficulty was not the machine, but the needle. He might have failed altogether but for this dream. He thought he was in a strange and savage land and was to be executed if he did not complete the machine and make it work.

He was given 24 hours, and he spent it in agony of work, apparently. It was all useless, until he was actually being led to the place of death. On the way he noticed that the warriors who guarded him carried spears which were pierced near the head. Instantly the inventor saw the solution of his difficulty, and while he was begging for time he awoke. It was 4 o'clock in the morning. He leaped out of bed, rushed to his workshop, and before breakfast he had modeled the first sewing machine needle, with the eye at the point!

GROWING POPULARITY OF HOLLYHOCKS

In the June Woman's Home Companion is an article on gardening by Franz Blicher, who says that the growing fondness for hollyhocks can be partly explained by the formal and semi-formal style of garden that is now so popular.

"There is a wide diversity of opinion as to the best soil for hollyhocks. I have before me as I write the books of two 'authorities,' one of which says they should have a very rich soil, the other one saying they should have a dry and rather poor soil. My own opinion runs with the former authority; and I would only insist that it is more important to have the soil in the very perfection of physical condition than to have the soil in the very perfection of physical condition than to have it rich in plant food. Good physical condition is partly the result of original composition and more the result of constant deep and thorough cultivation."

In colors and forms the hollyhock is just as versatile as any of our best garden plants. Indeed, the range of colors is unusually wide, and the colors are all good.

"Aside from the point of color the form of the blossoms cuts the largest figure in hollyhocks. There are several types of double, semi-double, ruffled and fringed, besides the good honest single sorts. The very full double blossoms have always been popular, and quite deservedly so, but it may be fairly questioned whether the single flowers are not more effective in the prim old-fashioned style of garden to which the hollyhock is naturally suited."

ELECTRICITY ON TRAINS

(Chicago Journal)
Those who wonder how the electricity used for lighting trains, operating fans in coaches and the like is generated should know that it comes from a turbine generator which is usually geared to the axle of the car, the motion of the train operating it and supplying the current at no cost but that of "deterioration of machinery."

It Always Helps
says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill."
I wish every suffering woman would give
